

KEITH CHASIN

PIANIST, COMPOSER, AND BANDLEADER

Pianist and composer Keith Chasin brings joy and excitement to jazz, creating engaging and entertaining music that appeal to all listeners.

Keith Chasin is a pianist, composer, and bandleader based in Philadelphia. At 25, he has performed throughout the US with his own groups and others, sharing the stage with such as Terell Stafford, Jimmy Heath, Joe Lovano, Sean Jones, John Clayton, Rene Marie, Dick Oatts, and Doug Beavers. Although young, he has already performed at acclaimed venues such as Birdland, The Appel Room at Lincoln Center, Alice Tully Hall at Lincoln Center, The Kimmel Center, World Cafe Live, Chris' Jazz Cafe, and The Newtown Theatre. His original music has been heard on WRTI and WHYY, and his groups regularly perform around Philadelphia. He can be heard as a leader on The Triple T's release "The Triple T's Were Here", "My Kind of Swing" by Brandon Tomasello, "On Earth" by Pizzle and The Sizzle Sisters, and other releases.*

As a composer, Chasin has composed music and written arrangements for artists throughout Philadelphia and New Jersey, including artists signed to Elektra Records. He was an honorary mention in the 2022 New York Youth Symphony First Music Competition, Jazz and his music has been used in advertisements for groups like IHOP and The New Orleans Tourism Board.

Chasin is a leader of numerous projects, all of which emphasize audience engagement, jazz artistry, and original writing. These groups include:

The Triple T's - A fusion group featuring original music and interpretations of popular songs. Over years of performing, the group has toured the US, performed for audiences of 500+, and released their music, available on Spotify.

The Keith Chasin Quintet - A musical unit featuring Chasin's original works and arrangements of well-known music. This group also performs a popular Tribute to Bobby Timmons, bringing new life to his music with authentically-energetic performances.

The Keith Chasin Pop Trio - A jazz trio dedicated to the performance of popular music in the jazz tradition. Formed around the idea of Herbie Hancock's "New Standard", the group regularly performs with guest vocalists.

Chasin also regularly performs solo throughout Philadelphia. His sets of music include jazz standards, The Great American Songbook, and popular music interpreted in the jazz tradition.

www.facebook.com/keithchasinmusic
www.instagram.com/keithchasinmusic
www.keithchasinjazz.com | keith.chasin@gmail.com